Until Then – SDAH 632

My heart can sing when I pause to remember
A heartache here is but a stepping stone
Along a trail that's winding always upward,
This troubled world is not my final home.

*But until then my heart will go on singing,
Until then with joy I'll carry on,
Until the day my eyes behold the city,
Until the day God calls me home.*

The things of earth will dim and lose their value
If we recall they're borrowed for a while;
And things of earth that cause the heart to tremble,
Remembered there will only bring a smile.

I Cannot Tell – SDAH 255

I cannot tell why He whom angels worship
Should set His love upon the souls of men,
Or why as Shepherd He should seek the wanderers
To bring them back, they know not how nor when.
But this I know, that He was born of Mary,
When Bethlehem's manger was his only home,
And that He lived at Nazareth and laboured,
And so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, has come.

I cannot tell how silently He suffered,
As with His peace He graced this place of tears,
Or how His heart upon the cross was broken,
The crown of pain to three and thirty years.
But this I know, He heals the broken-hearted,
And stays our sin, and calms our lurking fear,
And lifts the burden from the heavy laden,
For still the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is here.

I cannot tell how He will win the nations,
How He will claim his earthly Heritage,
How satisfy the needs and aspirations
Of east and west, of sinner and of sage.
But this I know, all flesh shall see His glory,
And He shall reap the harvest He has sown,
And some glad day His sun will shine in splendour
When He the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.

I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship,
When, at His bidding, every storm is stilled,
Or who can say how great the jubilation
When all our hearts with love for Him are filled.
But this I know, the skies shall sound His praise,
Ten thousand, thousand human voices sing,
And earth to heaven, and heaven to earth, will answer,
'At last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'
