Matthew 28:19-20, NKJV

'Thought for the Week'

We are ambassadors for Christ – every last one of us who are Christians. If this is so, what are we to do, and what are we to say? While we are very much in this world, how are we not 'of' it? ## Divine Service

11.00am

After Jesus said this, he looked toward heaven and prayed: 'Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you. For you granted him authority over all people that he might give eternal life to all those you have given him. Now this is eternal life: that they know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent. I have brought you glory on earth by finishing the work you gave me to do. And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began.'
