Next Week's Study

'Living Holy Lives'

*For God did not call us to be impure,
but to live a holy life'.*

1 Thessalonians 4:7

'Thought for the Week'

Why is a holy life so important? How would we define a "holy life"? In what way does this play into our relationships with one another?
Why does the way we treat each other affect the way we relate to God?
Why is pleasing God important as an element in the great controversy? Is it just a question of blind obedience?

- The speaker today will be Paul Clee whose topic is 'On the Road With God'.
- Next week's Parallel will be a Youth Sabbath.

FAMILY MINISTRIES PRAYER BASKET. This week the Prayer Basket will be passed on to John, Lorraine, Peter and Carolyn Cooper and her fiancé Etienne Guenin. We invite the church to pray for this lovely family and remember their special request - that God guides Carolyn & Etienne wedding planning so that the process and the big day itself brings glory to Him and testifies of the amazing God of love that He is. And that each will strive to do Gods will in their lives and maintain a closer walk with Him!

PRAYER BASKET TESTIMONY

We would like to thank the church for the prayers we received during the two week period the prayer basket was with us. We felt especially blessed at that time and felt an overwhelming sense of support coming from the praying church members as our lives were touched by the Holy Spirit. We pray for the continuation of the program as a real and tangible way for members to support one another in Christian love.

Keshishian Family.

PATHFINDERS. Please pray for those attending the BUC Camporee from 13-19 August. There is a Pathfinder Rally and Fair at Stanborough Park from 7-9 September. Please refer to the noticeboard in the foyer for cost and ticket availability.
