Emotional Resilience Dinner Event on Sunday 15th December from 4.30pm in the Cedar Sycamore Room. In the last 12 years, both Wale and Uche have visited many churches and held many workshops and events teaching people how to become emotionally resilient. Over the years, the need for more Workshops and training has grown and they have seen many people break free from emotional difficulties. This dinner is to encourage people to speak up if they are going through any emotional issues. This event is supported by SEC Corner Stone Department, OVP Projects and Adventist Radio. For more information and to book, please contact Uche on 07828 438 849.
