EVIE'S DECISION (DEVOTIONAL)

"Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation." Mark 16:15

Evie was one of 25 American teenagers in a high school choir who traveled to Jamaica to sing, witness, and show God's love to people of a different culture and generation. And for Evie, one day of that trip was particularly memorable and joy-filled.

That day, the choir went to a nursing home to sing and visit with the residents. After they sang, Evie sat down with a young woman who lived at the home, a woman in her early 30s. As they began to chat, Evie felt that she should talk about Jesus—who He is and what He did for us. She showed her verses in the Bible that explained salvation. Soon the woman said she wanted to trust Jesus as her Savior. And that's just what she did.

Because of Evie's decision to start a conversation about Jesus, our group celebrated a new birth into God's family that day.

Mark 16:15 tells us that what Evie did is what is expected of all believers. Here's how The Message paraphrases that verse: "Go everywhere and announce the Message of God's good news to one and all."

May we never underestimate the wonder of what it means for anyone, anywhere to hear the good news and to say yes to our Savior.
