IT IS WITH DEEPEST REGRET that we inform the Stanborough Park Church family of the recent passing of Curtis Chang.

Ian Chang, his second son, sent us this message: “He was visiting Cádiz, Spain alongside my mother, Celia Chang on vacation to see his grandson, and daughter-in-law (the wife and son of his second son, Ian). However, on the night of Thursday 25th May, he suddenly passed away in the hotel room where he was staying. He would be best remembered as serving as a deacon and also being one of the drivers of the soup run at Stanborough Park. He leaves behind his widowed wife, Celia Chang, his two sons (Michael and Ian Chang) and their respective wives (Kimberley and Tamara), and two grandsons (Franklin and Neizan).” Please keep the family in your thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

TOMORROW, June 4 at 1 pm, Audrey Balderstone and James Huzzey will be married in Stanborough Park Church. As a church family we celebrate with them and pray they experience God’s richest blessings with much happiness as they embark on this new adventure together. You are all invited to the church service to share in this joyous occasion. If you cannot attend in person, the service will be on livestream.

Come and enjoy an extended time of worship, sharing from God’s word, loving fellowship, family games, and fun!
